

Dear representatives of the foreign press,

From the large number of individual requests and demands we receive on a daily basis, we are aware of and understand your eagerness for more information regarding the Air Show 2012, including the registration process and other matters.

On this occasion, we would like to inform you that the web site will be our main communication channel with you.

So far, the following has been confirmed:

- 1) Air Show 2012 Programme, <http://www.aeromiting.vs.rs/en/Programme.html>
- 2) Air Show Media day on 1st September.
- 3) In order to work in Serbia as a foreign journalist you need to be accredited at the Serbian Ministry of Culture and Media. Please find an accreditation form at the link provided. Registration form Fill it in and send it together with a letter from your office/media group by email to zpovrenovic@kultura.gov.rs or aleksandar.gajovic@kultura.gov.rs, telephone no.: +381 11 3345 415. Please be patient with the answers because of the holiday season.
- 4) All other information regarding accreditation for the Air Show 2012 and the Media Day in Ministry of Defence will be posted on the web site <http://www.aeromiting.vs.rs/>.
- 5) Information regarding accreditation collection will also be available on the site at the earliest opportunity.
- 6) Representatives of media who have permanent accreditation at the Serbian Ministry of Culture do not have to apply again.
- 7) The list of journalists already accredited can be viewed at the following link. List of accredited journalist

Best regards from Belgrade,
PR Department